Attn: Ms. LaVoy

Dear Mr. Bader:

In response to Ms. LaVoy's recent request, the attached "operational case studies" are forwarded for your information.

While we generally prefer that material of this nature be reviewed at CIA Headquarters, we are convinced by Ms. LaVoy's argument that the attached studies in this case are not generically different from material which we have forwarded previously.

We do see a trend to ask for materials to be sent to the Committee which has been made available for review at CIA Headquarters. We do not see any factors which have changed our original decision to protect sources and methods and, at the same time, to grant access. We can be quite flexible about access outside normal working hours.

In any event, we probably need to discuss this arrangement, certainly before it threatens to become an issue.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Review Staff

ATTENTION :

SUBJECT : Relations with Universities

REFERENCE : RS 75-3529

With regard to paragraph 3(a) of Bill Bader's letter of 21 November, we can find no written internal guidelines stipulating that "appropriate university officials" be witting of CIA contracts with members of the university. In actual practice, however, we do conform to this rule.
